

Red and white canes

Did you know...

A blind or visually impaired person may use a white cane, and a deafblind person may use a red and white striped cane.

Canes generally come in two lengths:

- a short cane is a symbol of a disability
- a long cane is a symbol and aids mobility.

